

Daniel Warren
Brunswick

I and my family are woken before dawn and eat supper often with a noise greater than jet airplanes approaching for a landing. As with noise in exhaust systems in cars and trucks, please regulate such excessive noise. Other forms of commercial fishing do not generate such loud and high pitched noise. Thanks for your care and attention regarding this matter.