

Darren Brown
Wales
LD 716

The thought of taking away hunting / night hunting of coyotes is not just a matter of us hunters losing the opportunity to. It's about safety of the people of this state . I have neighbors who have lost pets , chickens they use for eggs on their table . Also some who have had coyotes way too comfortable and close to home with small children . A large number of coyotes harvest have been full of mange . Not allowing hunting will create a much larger problem .