

Ivy Larrabee
Knox
LD 716

Coyotes have been in our field as close as 20 yards from our livestock, and where our children play. We have hunting at night for years as this is the highest success rate to keep the population down. Cutting night hunting would be a huge mistake for our local livestock safety and the deer population.