

Greg Barnes
GREENFIELD
LD 820

This bill should be passed as it is not only heritage but a natural action in the history of human survival on the planet.

To say this is not a right is to say humans should not have existed. We in North America are great stewards of our wildlife, and outdoors people are the reason this resource is conserved as well as it has been.

To maintain this as a right guarantees the conservation in the future