

Michelle Borodinsky
Brunswick
LD 537

As a retired RN, I am particularly concerned about the mental health and well being of the people of Maine in particular our youth. No young person should be singled out and attacked in this way. It is unconscionable and dangerous.