

Anthony Bailey
Augusta
LD 492

Can you MAKE amendments to allow parents to have parental rights over special needs adults that can't take of themselves due to down syndrome or autism please this will help my father and my father want to have parental rights over me when I'm special needs and can't take care of myself and there are other states that have adult children to be considered minors and there even states that have child support over 18 with special needs adults and I beg you to have my dad to have parental rights over me when I'm 26 years old please can you make amendments to this bill and I live on this earth and I dont want to have to move to a different state where there is parental rights over special needs adults I spoke to the aid he said there other states that allow parents to continue to have parental rights and please allow parents to have parental rights over autistic or down syndrome adults or other developmental diseases please I beg you to make this amendment my father wants to have parental rights over me