

Ethan Damuck
Milford
LD 1126

3D printed weapons have never been used in a crime. This law will do nothing other than provide the government a way to prosecute hobbyists.

We don't register firearms. The government does not track the private ownership of mass manufactured firearms so why ban privately built ones.

Legislation like this is driving taxpayers away from this state.