

Geoffrey Gratwick
BAngor
LD 677

Please support LD 677. I worked in the Harlem Hospital ER when I was in medical training. One Saturday night screaming ambulances brought in three dead policemen, each of whom had been shot multiple times with an automatic weapon. Their brains had been pulverized. I still live with these images 50 years later. We do not need automatic weapons in civilian hands. Hon G Gratwick, MD