

Richard Smith
Beals
LD 424

Judiciary Committee members,

I wholeheartedly support extending the right to concealed carry a handgun to include individuals between 18-21 years of age. No matter the age of the carrier, concealed handgun in the possession of a responsible adult is no more inherently dangerous to the general public than an openly carried handgun.

LD 424 ought to pass!