

Meika Hashimoto
Bethel
LD 253

Women should not have to make a decision about having an abortion based on cost or insurance denial. This is an important right that needs to be protected, both judicially and financially.