

Joanne MacGillivray
SHERMAN
LD 253

The thought of an abortion repulses me. What actually occurs to the baby in the womb during an abortion makes me sick to my stomach. The thought of having to fund an abortion in any way is abhorrent and goes against every principle I stand for. Please don't force me to be part of this repugnant practice.