I am a survivor of a forced childhood marriage. I was 15 yrs old and pregnant by my biological mother's boyfriend. She was aware, had no legal rights of me; signed them over when i was 2 years old and is the only one to sign off on my marriage certificate to a 19 year old man in the state of Alabama. Fast forward 25 years and I'm living in another state and so is he but I had admit to "legally marrying a 19 yr old man" when I was 15 years old and pregnant in a court house in Alabama. They would not let me appeal the marriage and we never lived together.
