

Donnalyn Gallinger
PORTLAND
LD 1262

Our country has entered a lawless period. This is not surprising, since over the past 25 years, more and more civil rights have been effectively rescinded. This bill would move us toward some restoration of democracy, and I urge that it be passed.