

chris wriggins
yarmouth, maine
LD 1351

The idea that this bill is attempting to criminalize speech criticizing the Israeli government or the extremes of zionism is absurd and reminds me of the horrors of the cultural revolution under Mao TseTung. This is America, we can criticize whatever policy any government is pursuing without fear of retribution and last time I checked I think we still have separation of church and state.