

Kristin Clark
Thomaston
LD 233

I am writing in opposition to LD 233 prohibiting transgender girls from sports participation. Trans girls ARE girls and deserve to have the full rights afforded to all Maine students, whether in a private or a public school. The primary education years are for learning to live in a society and treat each other with respect. Discrimination and exclusion are not qualities of a caring civilized society.