

Kristin Clark
Thomaston
LD 1002

I am writing in OPPOSITION to LD1002 requiring schools to disregard children's gender identity and chosen name. These are the times we should most be supporting our kids, ESPECIALLY those whom are not supported by their families. These are precisely the issues that lead to depression, anxiety, drug use, and suicide. Schools need to be safe spaces for kids to be whom they know they are.