

Samantha Cote
Lewiston
LD 1337

Bills like this open up all women to forms of harassment by policing how their appearance looks: is it too feminine? Not feminine enough? Trans women in Maine already face serious barriers to accessing appropriate shelter –not to mention disproportionate risks of violence–when they are unhoused.