

Laura McLean
Scarborough
LD 1002

Children must be protected at all cost; regardless of political affiliation. It's imperative that we enable children to be identified by the name and gender of their comfort; in some cases, that may be different from their birth certificate. I would like to share an anecdote that occurred with my child in school.