“An Act to Remove Consideration of Gender Identity from the Maine Human Rights Act”

JUDICIARY

Testimony by

Steven C. Sheppard

The issues with LGBTQ and gay/transgender men are real, very unconstitutional and disturbing. There is a serious crime with LGBTQ and gay/transgender men, but society has no good constituency to “lynch” the accused properly.

The lynch mob was a little more of a result when the laws in historical times were abused and broken so blatantly.

The Constitution does not declare that all the “Constitutional Rights” belong to any one person that screams and hollers about their personal problems and personal rights being violated.

Violation, perpetration, breaking and abusing the American law is a common practice for the “criminally insane” American.

In my own opinion gay men are always insane intellectuals that will often times admit they are sinners. Being gay with a man is not healthy in my part of life and the universe.

In order to appease the large statistical population of Americans that aren’t gay we must punish or incriminate these accused transgender and gay men with some method of good law.

In my own opinion as a freedom loving American, we have been witness to a very serious outbreak of many politicians and activists that are border line criminally insane as Americans.

No normal or common American even cares about gay men or gay women. As long as it’s not an issue; just leave us alone about it most of the time.

Now with all the media attention and all the politicians being so bias about transgender rights, we all can see these types of criminally insane statesman that are seriously disturbing.

How do they get elected in the first place is my question. And I’m starting to understand here in Maine; Americans need to participate in government more to understand why insane people get elected.

People in Maine need to participate in government more.

Obviously, Maine is being manipulated by wealthy activists and criminally insane officers of government.

When the small minority of criminally insane become so obnoxious about the issues I believe in punishment of all kinds.

I believe in death for some; crucify some; burn some of the accused slowly and eradicate the very sentiment before the social diseases spread further. Only punishment will threaten the gay men enough. Fining them and making law to stop them will not be enough.

Take away these issues with "gender identity" completely is a very good place to start the eradication of criminally insane activists in government and society.

The LGBTQ and the gay men/transgender have become a very serious issue in America. The "lynch mob" is necessary in today's modern world. Only a good threatening "lynch mob" will ever stop these kinds of criminally insane gay men and women that only want to justify their selfishness more and more.

People are extremely dangerous and selfish because they cannot possess other people like a sage good lover in America. People are becoming more and more criminally insane with our government and our society.

Stopping the consideration of gender identity will surely burn the gay men, but they need to actually burn a times for taking these selfish issues so far with this society.

The populations that I know are a majority of married people that don't want any trouble most of the time because they are trying to work for a living.

Only the "lynch mob" will do for me, but I admit changing the law might help a little also.
