

Martha Sutro
Cape Elizabeth
LD 380

Gender affirming care is critical for ALL people no matter their orientation or identity. Heck, whenever I go get electrolysis I am receiving gender-affirming care. Leave everyone alone in their needs and choices for the kind of care they select. Nobody who receives gender affirming care is hurting anyone by doing so. And, when trans people receive the gender affirming care, they have greater well being and overall health which leads them to be more functional and contributing members of society.