

Heather Sylvester
Durham, ME
LD 1704

This is an act of discrimination against and an act of punishment for children who are marginalized because of their gender identification. If schools can no longer codify safety and anti-discrimination practices for our children then our children will not be safe, will not be free to learn and be educated. This bill opens up the allowance of bullying and discrimination.