

shane mitchell

LD 233

This is common sense legislation. It's outrageous to think otherwise! Biological males have no business being in biological female's locker rooms/bathrooms, or competing against them in sports programs. It's dangerous, and totally disrespects biological females. It's a travesty that women's sporting opportunities have been ruined by the State of Maine.