

Heather Archer
Exeter
LD 1378

There is no gun law you can ever pass that will stop a deranged person from committing murder. Murder is currently illegal in all 50 states. The Second Amendment is VERY clear, the right of the people to bear arms will not be infringed. That's it.

Myself, and hundreds of thousands of other Mainers have spoken on this, in writing and in previous votes. We already said no to this. I urge you to remember that, because we will remember how you vote come time to replace you.