

Beth Hawkyard
Orono
LD 2106

This Administration is using horrific tactics to unlawfully separate children from their families. Invading places of peace and community with anger, violence and pain. We need to stand up for what is right, speak for those that are too young to speak for themselves, and protect our community. Stop this madness!