

Clorinda Chunn
Waldo
LD 785

It is past time for the State of Maine to treat Indigenous nations with respect, to agree to their authority over their citizens, and to acknowledge tribal sovereignty as it should have been made clear in the Land Claims Settlement. Maine is an embarrassment to most residents in being remiss in acknowledging these rights.