

Amy DeNuzzio
Arundel
LD 2239

I'm in opposition of this ballot initiative because it intends to do more harm than good. Children should have the opportunity to be their true selves, and protected and fully supported to do so. I feel that this is a waste of time and effort and does not fully represent Maine communities. We should be focusing on more important and impactful issues, not ones that are just meant to be divisive distractions. Protect trans kids, always.