

Arthur Kelly
Kelly Orchards
LD 589

Requiring overtime pay for agricultural workers will have the unintended consequence of reducing workers earnings. Employers do not have the ability absorb increased production costs on units of production that occur in the less than overtime allowed hours. We will attempt to either increase the work force or reduce production so that it can be accomplished in fewer hours.