

Pamela Clarke
Philadelphia Pa

Housing is a human right. Every person deserves a place to live. Our community needs to do what it can to ensure that people do not have to experience homelessness. People deserve the dignity of having a roof over their heads, a safe and warm place to sleep at night. We are counting on legislators to support the establishment of shelter for people experiencing homelessness. Do the right thing to take care of our citizens.