

Janet Drew
York

I support creative partnerships to address housing for working families, people in recovery or experiencing mental health needs.

With covid health & safety $$$ coming to towns County and states, regional solutions to myriad social and economic problems are within our reach . Kittery has a new proposal to fund Community Support housing using covid dollars developer housing funds and funds from town land sales. Bangor and Portland have initiatives