

Michael Young
Hermon

HP 1227 opens with the requirement of a PLA (Project Labor Agreement). These requirements are well known as manipulative language to funnel work to labor unions. Maine is a small business state, and most of our construction force is merit shop. As a result of this stipulation most of this construction work will funnel to out of state shops. This is not good for Maine, please reconsider and revise.