

Glenn Adams
Sargent Corporation
LD 1969

Sargent Corporation strongly urges the Labor and Housing Committee to reject LD 1969. We object specifically to the apprenticeship requirements, prevailing wage requirements, and exemptions related to collective bargaining agreements. This bill would increase labor costs for potential developers and sends an open invitation for competition from out-of-state union contractors. Please feel free to contact me with any questions.