

Gary Cummings
Cape Elizabeth
LD 2003

I believe it is very inappropriate for the State Government to attempt to make new laws so they can overturn local Town Zoning Laws. The citizens of each Town should decide what is best for their community. Please don't take this right from the Towns . To be honest I can't believe this is even be discussed . I have enough faith in people that they will address needs for others and at the same time show concern for their community. Thank You