

Ronald Duplissis
Auburn
LD 2003

I would like to voice opposition to this bill. The state government should be leaving the zoning rules and regulations up to local communities for them to decide. Who would know better how to manage lands better than the local residents of each city or town. We should not be handing over control to big government. This bill being pushed through during an "emergency" makes me VERY suspicious and distrusting of the motive behind such a bill.