

Suzanne Duplissis
Auburn
LD 2003

I oppose this bill. The state government has no business attempting to take local control away from towns regarding zoning. State government has its own issues to manage and needs to keep its nose out of town business. This bill being pushed through during an "emergency" makes me VERY suspicious and distrusting of the motive behind such a bill. The people have had enough of this administration pushing its own agenda down the throats of Mainers!