

Austin Gregory
Backyard ADU's
LD 2003

We have 4 examples in the last year alone of people wanting to add an accessory dwelling unit for their parent or adult aged child in their own backyard where their only road block was the town zoning ordinances and planning boards. This law would have allowed all four projects to be built last year providing an affordable solution to these clients.