

Greg Soutiea
Spruce Head
LD 1190

This bill would make hospitality scheduling very difficult for restaurant and hotel owners. The flexibility with our staff and our ever changing needs are in part what make the business work best. Passing this would pose undue burden on hospitality businesses that are the heart of Maine's tourism industry.

The state should not impose financial penalties for changes to employees' schedules. Our businesses already operate on thin margins. Now is not the time to consider adding to the stack of potential financial violations already on the books.