

Adam Race
Portland

I have worked for years to pursue an education in ocean farming and marine food resources with dreams to start my own ocean farm. This dream would better the community, environment, and economy. It is unfair to put in limitations on my dream