

Lauren Rupp
Bar Harbor

This is a bill that was crafted with vague and deceptive language and is a means to divide our working waterfronts. It could sink small farms like ours and lead to further gentrification of our coastline. It ought not pass.