

Lea Carver
Owls Head

I support this bill. There is a terrific burden on many towns to maintain their cemeteries and update/record graves, something many citizens are unaware of. A state organization that would provide assistance and information to those local cemeteries would be invaluable.