

Dexter Lee
Swans Island

I served as a sexton for 43 years. I fail to see what this bill will accomplish. Information on cemeteries, burials etc. is readily available to municipalities via the Maine Municipal Association or to individuals that have access to State statutes.

A commission of 8 - 11 people (and no member of the general public) would produce nothing more than what the Maine Old Cemetery Association could produce in a single pamphlet.