

Barbara Britten
Shapleigh

After the year we've just been through, with the governor making her own decisions, giving noone any input, it's extremely important to remove any language that will let it happen again. Citizens of Maine had no representation whatsoever from March 17, 2020 to date. Fix it, please.