

Dustin Gregoire
Gorham

Establishing proper balance within the Governor's emergency power rights is good for all Mainers. The American Government has always been about checks and balances to avoid abuses of power and this should be no different. No Governor is above the will of the elected voice of the people.