

Dustin Gregoire
Gorham

The Publics of Maine require transparency or else they should not be able to trust the Maine Government. It is in the best interests of the people and the elected officials to be more transparent with how they manage emergencies. This should pass.