

Dustin Gregoire
Gorham

The People's Voice should be protected in any "state of emergency". Simply because there is an apparent emergency does not mean people can not voice their own opinions and act in their best interest. This should pass.