

Jessica Whitworth
Appleton

I just want to say that we are a REPUBLIC, we go against that when all the power lies within one person or council. One person, surrounded by like-minded advisors will not see the faults in their reasoning and approach. It is important we have a balance in the powers of government. It is the people who craft and create the laws they then agree to live by. I hope we can find a balance, give the people back their voices!
Thank You!