

Ryan Adams
Fayette

I disagree with this bill. The Maine constitution grants all citizens the right to bear arms, and that shall not be questioned. I believe we are moving in the wrong direction with this. Many small communities already hold elections in schools or municipal buildings that do not allow the voters to carry a firearm for protection. Moreover, there are already laws on the books to prevent voter intimidation.