

Kevin Campbell
Dresden

Not only could this bill deprive Maine citizens of their natural and constitutional right to self-protection on election day, but it also seeks to chip away at Maine's strong preemption law. Preemption prohibits our nearly 500 individual municipalities from making up their own rules about guns, which would result in a confusing, ever-changing patchwork of gun laws across the state. Please oppose this measure!