You live in one of the safest states in the United States. This rule is not going to resolve anything. The only people that will follow this law are the citizens that follow rules and laws. The criminals and the people that are evil and wish to do harm will laugh in your face and carry guns, bombs, knives and any other things to disrupt or create violence. This is just a stupid stupid stupid rule. Look at all the gun free zones where there has been violence. Your stupid law will not stop a person that looks to hurt someone comman
