

John Mills
Holden

Hello. I do not support this bill. I believe that 18 is a good age to be able to vote. Age 16 is too young. These young people are not mature enough and have not had enough life experience to vote before age 18. Thank you for your consideration.