

Kristen Arnold
Ogunquit

To whom it may concern,

I would like to show my support for regulations on the books to give Mainers the opportunities to rent out their homes, should they choose to do so. Having the flexibility to rent should not be taken away. Rentals not only contribute greatly to local economies, they also support the jobs of all the people involved, from administrators, to cleaners, contractors, and others. Thank you